Virginia Pearson Talks of Its Spiritual Side

By MAUDE MILLER.

THE Miss Virginia Pearson, that one meets in everyday life is very different from the Miss Virginia Pearson in the play, "Newly Married." Miss Pearson believes that to be beautiful one must go to nature, one must get in harmony with the elements. And it is her very own philosophy of life that she gave me in her dressing room at the Gaiety theater between acts.

"To be beautiful one must develop the spiritual side of one's nature. People talk of beauty of mind, and develop the intellect by hard study, but when the spirit is spoken of, people smile and speak of religious attitude. Spirituality doesn't mean religion. It may be defined as highly developed mentality, made so simple that it radiates and is an instrument of good to other people. It is the freedom given by the elements, dressed in the civilized form of education. It is the fluttering soul of an individual, high above the mind, that smiles from the eyes, and radiates in every thought, word and gesture.

Simplicity Necessary.

"This spirituality can be applied to the most trivial things of life. Simplicity is its keynote and therefore the beautiful girl is the natural girl. The natural girl does not rely upon the cold cream of today for her beautiful complexion. She never maintains that water ruins the skin and insists upon unnecessary application of cold cream. The truth of it is that the girl who does not wash her face is never absolutely clean. We never think of cleansing a baby with cold cream; we bathe it freely in warm water and castile soap, with a little borax added for softening purposes. And this is exactly what should be done for the face. Cold cream is all right in its place, but should never be depended upon for absolute cleanliness.

The dangerously beautiful woman is feminine. By that I don't mean effeminate, the kind of a woman who

CONTRACTORS ADMIT PAYING $250 EACH TO TAMMANY MAN

New York, Nov. 21.—Four upstate contractors told assistant district attorney John K. Clark today that each had contributed $250 to the fund collected by Robert P. Fowler, alleged Tammany "bossman," who is now under indictment charged with extortion.

The men who acknowledged the payment, according to Mr. Clark, were W. J. Burns, Guy B. Dickinson, Wm. J. Dwyer and John Weidman.

Prior to the resumption of the John Doe inquiry this afternoon McGuire went before the grand jury. It is understood that he was questioned closely concerning alleged conversations between himself and William Sulzer when Sulzer was governor relative to the asphalt to be used in building state roads.

SUFFRAGETS HAVE OFFICE RAIDED DURING BIG FIRE

Oxford, England, Nov. 21.—Vengeance was dourly visited on the suffragettes who early today set fire to a great lumber yard on the Thames, near Oxford. While the lumber was still burning, the offices of the suffragettes in this city were raided.

The damage done by the lumber yard fire amounted to $100,000.

Strength and Appetite Restored

This Brooklyn woman is now the picture of health, thanks to the wonderful restorative power of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and she cannot praise it too highly. Here's what she says:

"About a year ago I was down with a very heavy cold and I had a bad pain under my shoulder blades. I was under the care of different doctors but did not improve. I was so weak I could hardly stand, and I could not keep anything on my stomach. A druggist kept advising me to take a bottle of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey with an egg in milk before meals, and after following his advice I found that I could eat; I overcame my weakness, and gradually gained in weight. I believe that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a tonic for run-down people is a great thing, and I recommend it to my many friends in Brooklyn and New York. I cannot praise Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey too much."

Mrs. Mary Carmody, 115 N. Elliott Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

Taken just before bedtime stimulates the mucous surfaces and little glands of the stomach to healthy action, improving the digestion and assimilation of the food and giving to the system its full proportion of nourishment. This action upon the digestive process is of great importance, as it brings to all the tissues and organs of the body the nutrient necessary to their sustenance and indirectly to the whole system strength and vigor. It is prescribed by doctors and is recognized as a family medicine everywhere.

Don't let a dealer induce you to accept a substitute because it's cheaper. That's the very reason it is inferior to Duffy's—the original and only true medicinal whiskey. Sold by most druggists, grocers and dealers. $1.00 a large bottle. Medical booklet and doctor's advice free if you write The Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

NAVAJO INDIANS
MAY VIEL SOON

Tribesmen Are Not in Sympathy With Seven Braves Under Indictment.

Durango, Colo., Nov. 21.—Hope for a speedy adjustment of the Navajo Indian situation in northwestern New Mexico was expressed today by agent W. T. Shelton at the Shiprock agency. Long distance telephone conversation, agent Shelton declared that only a few Indians were on Beautiful mountain with the seven braves wanted in connection with the indictments returned in the United States district court for New Mexico. He stated that his knowledge of the situation led to the belief that the accused Indians do not have the support of their tribesmen and that their companions on Beautiful mountain are endeavoring to induce them to surrender.

Early today the situation was quiet at Shiprock and Shelton was confident that the recalcitrants would yield without resistance upon the arrival of Gen. H. L. Scott and two troops of the 10th cavalry.

Indian inspector McLaughlin today continued negotiations with the chiefs. The one accused brave, who surrendered yesterday, has been lodged in jail at Aztec, N. M.
